

SANDUSKY, O., Nov. 18.—Barney Coyne borrowed $1,500 of his wife to pay his debts. He went to Toledo with a dissolute woman and squandered the money. His wife followed him. He stepped into a drug store, bought a half ounce of arsenic, swallowed it, burst into tears and died before medical assistance could be rendered.

THURSDAY EVE, NOV. 18, 1886.

Ex-President Arthur Dead.

A despatch received by us shortly before we went to press, announces the death of Ex-President Chester A. Arthur this morning at 5 o'clock, at his home in New York City, of Bright's disease. The deceased was fifty-six years of age, and has been in bad health for the past year.

The naval estimates for the next fiscal year are $10,000,000 less than they were last year.

The President has reinstated United States District Attorney Benton, of Missouri, whom he suspended for making public speeches.

The Democrats have the Legislature of New Jersey by a majority of one on joint ballot. This is a close shave, but it will likely result in a loss of one U. S. Senator to the Republicans.

For the fiscal year ending June 30th, the internal revenue collections in this State amounted to $15,746,940.59. The collections in this district (the Seventh) foot up to more than $2,430,000.

The new bridge across the Licking between Newport and Covington has been received by the directors, after a thorough test. Its total cost will not exceed $85,000, and it is considered one of the best and cheapest bridges in the State.

The fight over the postoffice at Mt. Sterling will begin before long. As there are several applicants, some one is bound to get left, and then there will be a few more Democrats in the country who don't believe in Cleveland.

Litigation against the Kentucky Union Railroad and the Central Kentucky Lumber, Mining, Manufacturing and Transportation Company at Paris has increased. Over $208,000 is now the amount of suits that have been filed.

Two "cow-boys" have lately landed in Fleming County from some where out West and, according to reports, are behaving like "fan." A despatch says that having armed themselves with a double-barrel shot-gun and a pair of pistols, they are bidding defiance to society and levying contributions on whom they choose without any opposition. One of the twins, Alex. Pendium, was formerly of that county, and enjoys the reputation of being a moonshine outlaw.

A. J. MCCARTHY will begin the publication of the Fleming County Republican at Flemingsburg, the 7th of next month. The mass of the Democrats will be treated with "kindness, fairness and politeness," by Brother McCarthy, but the "Mugwump will be handled without gloves." Pity the poor Mugwump. Doesn't the Republican know that Hon. W. H. Wadsworth and the Hon. George M. Thomas, to a great extent, owe their election to the Mugwumps?

A SYNDICATE of capitalists headed by Jno. Carlisle, of Cincinnati, will, it is reported, build a railroad from Ashland, Ky., to Charleston, S. C., using the present Chat-tahoo road as a part of the line. It is said that the construction of the road will be commenced in earnest in the spring, as arrangements have been made to secure the necessary funds. The building of this line will open up some valuable coal-fields and stone quarries, and on certain portions there are valuable timber lands. Let the good work proceed.

A Few Facts.

The Republicans did not gain on their former strength in a single State, in the recent election.

The Republican majority of 41,500 for Blaine in Minnesota, was wiped out.

The Republican majority in Ohio was but a little over 11,000—a loss of 6,000 from last year.

In Massachusetts the Republican majority was reduced one-half, and the Democrats gain two Congressmen.

Colorado and California have fallen into the Democratic line.

In New York the Republicans failed to elect their best man, and lost the State for the fourth time in succession—Exchange.

Several cases of pronounced Consumption have been entirely cured by use of a few bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery, taken in connection with Electric Bitters. We guarantee them always. Sold by J. C. Pecor & Co.

A THREATENED STRIKE AT CHICAGO.

The Strikers Refuse to Post a Money Forfeit as a Guarantee of Peace.

Chicago, Nov. 18.—There are signs of fresh trouble at the stockyards. The packers require the returning strikers to deposit a money forfeit not to engage in any more strikes. Many of the men say they will never sign any such agreement. Mr. Barry, who was instrumental in ending the strike, said:

"The packers think they have the men by the throats, and propose to tighten their grip a little. They have extracted their pound of flesh, and now require a pound of gold." He claimed that the men would act as a unit regarding the contract exacting a money forfeit from them, and that if a new strike occurred it would not mean disobedience to Powderly's recent order. The aggregate amount of the forfeit required by the packers is $2,500,000.

FIENDISH ROBBERS.

Beating Their Victim to Insensibility and Setting Fire to His Clothes.

CLARENS, Nov. 18.—A stranger named James Dobyson came dragging himself slowly and painfully into the city last night at about 11 o'clock. He was fearfully burned and presented a ghastly appearance.

While walking along the railroad track two miles east of here, he said, he was attacked by two unknown men, who, after relieving him of all the money he had, beat him in a brutal manner until he was insensible and then set fire to his clothing. The flames burned into the flesh, roasting consciousness, and by rolling on the ground and tearing at his garments with his naked hands he succeeded in extinguishing the flames, but not until he had received terrible and probably fatal burns. He is now under the care of physicians here.

A Missouri Tragedy.

St. Louis, Nov. 18.—Missie Bess was shot and killed by a young man named Stockwell, near Bonne Terre, St. Francis county. Stockwell's shot was intended for the girl's father, but she sprang in front of the intended victim and saved his life by sacrificing her own. The tragedy occurred during a family quarrel, in which Bess and young Stockwell's father were the principals. There has been bad blood between the two families, who occupy adjacent farms, for years, owing to an alleged breach of promise by one of Stockwell's sons to marry Miss Minnie. The murder is now in jail.

Scandal in High Life.

New York, Nov. 18.—Mrs. LAWRENCE Hopkins, a noted New York beauty and actress, is accused of the same kind of conduct against her husband, Amos Lawrence Hopkins, vice president of the Missouri Pacific Railroad company, and son of President Mark Hopkins of Williams college. Mrs. Hopkins is a daughter of George L. Dunlap, a leading Chicago merchant. The couple have been married seven years. It is said that the ground of the application for divorce is adultery. George Bliss has been retained for Mrs. Hopkins and Dillon & Sways for Mr. Hopkins.

Slippery Schmiltzki.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 18.—Paul Schmiltzki, confidential bookkeeper for Joseph Maunier & Co., plumbers, at No. 214 Elm street, is missing. The track left by him are those of a "crooked" man. Three fraudulent checks have turned up. Joseph Wynn, of George and Elm streets has one for $50; Andy Fritz of Pearl and Elm, another for $40, and Fred Schawb, of Pearl and Elm, the last for $41. He was last seen at his home at Pearl and Elm last Sunday morning. He then kissed his wife good-by and left the house. She is entirely destitute. An examination of the books is now in progress. Schmiltzki was somewhat of a politician in the Eighth ward.

So That All That Run May Read.

MONTPELIER, Vt., Nov. 18.—The legislature, both houses, has passed a bill providing that all holders of restaurants using oleomargarine shall put up large signs notifying the public of the fact.

THE heavy rains yesterday will keep the river at a fine boating stage for some time, and will likely bring out all the coal ready for shipment at Pittsburg. Since our last report, the additional shipments amount to 435,000 bushels, making a total of about 3,700,000 bushels to date.

A. M. J. COCHRAN, commissioner, has conveyed to Frank Gable and children a house and lot on the north side of Second street, in the West End, a part of the property of the late D. S. Bonniwell, for $1,400.

Others, after a few weeks, are able to discontinue the use of spectacles entirely. For sale by Ballenger.

THE statement is made that "when the Big Sandy road is completed it will be one of the greatest coal roads in this country. Mr. Huntington says that he can land coal in this city as cheap as it can be brought by the river. He says that he will also carry coal direct to Chicago. Enormous trains can be hauled from the fact that it is all down grade."

MESSRS E. A. ROBINSON & CO. have removed their cigar factory, the famous "Limestone," to Second street opposite the foot of Court street, where they will be glad to wait upon their former customers. Wholesale and retail trade solicited. The fine brands of cigars turned out by this firm are unexcelled anywhere, and meet with a big demand wherever sold. Private brands a specialty.

THE New York World says that many a dealer who places a $10 advertisement in his village paper begrudges his investment when it is worth double to him what he pays for it. Advertising rates in city newspapers would astonish such business men. One column in the Chicago Tribune costs the advertiser $26,000 per annum. The New York Herald receives for its lowest price column $39,568, and for its highest price $63,890. The New York Tribune for the lowest $29,754, and for the highest $85,648, and these papers, it is stated, never lack for advertisements to fill their columns.—Exchanges.

Beginning the first of next month, the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad Company, the Huntington system, will establish a new "trans-Atlantic steamship line" between Newport News, Va., and Liverpool, England. The following large iron steamships will make two sailings each month: Duke of Westminster, Duke of Buckingham, Duke of Buccleuch and Duke of Devonshire. The company offers the lowest current rates for the export and import business of the West and Southwest. Steerage passengers booked to and from European ports.

A Bloody Tragedy. A special from Elmensburg, says that one of the bloodiest tragedies ever enacted in that county happened at William Kissick's saw mill near Grange City, on the 15th instant. Frank Kissick, a preacher, and brother of the mill-man, became involved in a dispute with John Cundiff, a young mill-hand, and made at Cundiff for a fight. Cundiff grabbed up a broad-ax and struck at Kissick, cutting his body more than half through. Wat McKee, another mill-hand, had by this time become engaged in the fight by attempting to prevent the elder Kissick from going into the fight for his brother, the preacher, who fell to the ground and was left unscathed for, while the music of the pistol was being played by William Kissick on McKee. The latter being unarmed, beat a hasty retreat with unknown injuries, as the whereabouts are yet to be discovered. Cundiff was only slightly injured. The elder Kissick escaped without any wounds, while the younger one is dead.

Owens Parker & Co. have received a fresh lot of best Pomeroy lump coal. Coal is selling at 9 cents in the yard, or 10 cents delivered to yards.

McIntyre & Heath's Minstrels.

McIntyre & Heath will appear here next Saturday night with their excellent minstrel company. The Indianapolis Journal says:

"McIntyre and Heath stand head and shoulders above all competitors in their peculiar specialty, and are as artistic as they are amusing. Gloriously performing gods pleased the ladies and children, and the four 'Emperors of Music' presented the best musical set seen here in years. It was a bright and brilliant performance, and if you wish to increase your weight with laughter, you should see these musical minstrels."

Thanksgiving Services.

For a number of years past the Presbyterian, Methodist, Baptist and Christian churches, of this city, have united in one general service on Thanksgiving Day. This year the union service will be held in the M. E. Church, South, at 10:30 o'clock a. m. Rev. John S. Hays, D. D., will preach the sermon, and the pastor of the above named churches will assist in the exercises. We hope that life-day will be observed by all our people, and that the church will be crowded with those who are grateful for the blessings of another year. R. B. GARRETT, Chairman.

The Fashions.

Men's shoes are now broader at the toes.

Men's cuffs are cut round at the corners.

New fur bus tapes from the middle to each end.

Round hats for little girls have very high crowns.

There is no end of the variety in gentlemen's hat wear.

Velvet as well as cloth suits will be worn by young ladies.

Hairpins of shell have handsome heads set with imitation jewels.

Imitation coral necklaces and brooches are worn with full toilets.

Stand-up bows of old pictorial ribbon trim many handsome bonnets.

Young married ladies may wear either hat or bonnet for fall visiting dress.

Black, drab-gray and navy-blue stockings remain in favor for street wear.

Silk nightgowns and silk underwear are very much worn and beautifully embroidered.

Linked sleeve buttons are more popular for gentlemen's wear than single buttons.

Hats should always be worn with tailor made suits, whether the wearer is young or not.

White corduroy is popularly combined with white wool for dressy tea and morning gowns.

Fur boas are from two to three yards long, and some have tassels and others balls on the ends.

Evening dresses are again made of tulle or gauze richly embroidered with cut jet or crystal beads and bugles.

Velvet bonnets are worn this season with cloth and fancy woolen suits, especially when velvet or velveteen forms part of the costume.

Pelisses of gray plush, lined with pink, are coming in vogue for babies' wear. The hood must match the pelisse, and be tied with soft pink satin ribbons.

The three-button cutaway coat worn by gentlemen for morning dress this season looks better than formerly. It is cut lower and a little longer than last winter.

Cloth postillions are taking the place of the long-popular jersey in fashionable favor. These are made of plain tan, golden-brown, dark Russian blue, or taupe-green jersey cloth, if the skirt and tunic are of plaided or striped wool. If, however, the skirts are of plain camel's hair serge, vicuña, etc., the postillion is made of checked or hair-lined cheviot, tweed or light diagonal suiting.

Cream white or snow-white faille Francis is a very popular fabric for bridal toilet, when the tulle-train is not intended to be worn so rich and elaborate. This silk closely resembles gros-grain in appearance, but the quality is softer and the surface has a richer sheen. Moreover, it drapes with far more graceful effect, and it is also less expensive than the finer brands of gros-grain.

EIGHT HOURS IN ENGLAND

THE MOVEMENT RAPIDLY SPREADING OVER GREAT BRITAIN.

An Impression Among British Workmen that the Eight-Hour Movement in the United States Was a Success—A Council of War at St. Petersburg.

LONDON, Nov. 18.—The eight-hour movement has struck Great Britain and is said to be rapidly spreading over the kingdom. The British workmen seem to have got an impression that the eight-hour movement in the United States last spring was a complete success, and were stimulated by the impression to start a similar movement. The movement was initiated in Newcastle, and it is reported that in Newcastle, Edinburgh and other large cities, the three shift system, as the eight-hour movement is there called, is received with great favor.

At a representative meeting of workmen held in Newcastle, two weeks ago, delegates representing 35,000 men engaged in the chemical, railway, engineering and kindred industries were present, and a labor federation for the purpose of furthering the eight-hour cause was organized.

Council of War.

BERLIN, Nov. 18.—The Cologne Gazette says a council of war has been held at St. Petersburg, at which the question was debated of reorganizing the military service of Bulgaria, when the Russian candidate should be elected to the Bulgarian throne. It was decided that occupation of Bulgaria by Russia was not necessary, but that Russian officers should resume command of the Bulgarian army.

Austria and Germany's Alliance.

PARIS, Nov. 18.—Count Andrassy in a speech in the delegations expressed his belief that the alliance of Austria and Germany was the very best guarantee of the peace of Europe, but said the character of the alliance was lost when it became imperative to consider the interests of Russia in the Balkan question. The president outlined by M. Tassa had secured for Austria the support of Germany under all circumstances.

Police Force in Burma.

LONDON, Nov. 18.—Gen. Roberts intends to organize a police force in Burma, which will be largely substituted for military, doing guard duty in that country. This will considerably increase the active military force in Burma by relieving soldiers of other than strictly defensive or offensive functions.

BESIEGED BY A WILD BEAST.

Why the People of Marlboro, Mass., Spend Their Evenings at Home.

MARLBORO, Mass., Nov. 18.—The people of the town, particularly the children, are spending their evenings at home, and not going out so often as formerly. The cause of their staying at home is some kind of a wild beast that haunts the woods near Borden Hill. The animal howls all night and seems willing to fight all day.

Two young men, Eugene Bissie and Harry Bralley, went out to hunt the "warman" with dogs and guns. After tracking it for some time they found one of their dogs dead and terribly mangled, while another, a small paw chewed off. They came home unsuccessful.

James Barker could not sleep the other night on account of the howling, so arose from bed and went out to shoot the beast. He saw two glaucous eyes, fired at them and ran for the house. Since then the beast, which is supposed to be a panther, has attacked several dogs and is still howling.

Trouble at a Hotel.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—Judge Donohue, of the supreme court, has appointed James H. Broun receiver of the F. Scherer company, manufacturers of mineral water and other liquors. The company was involved in the Duffy Math case, which is still pending. This further complicates the trouble at French's hotel. P. Scherer company, which is now running the hotel, had been notified that they must pay $1,000 a week rent or be dispossessed, and it is prophesied that this will cause the hotel to be closed, as the running expenses are said to be $50 a day. The creditors of the French's hotel have resolved to call their executive committee together to take steps to have set aside the chattel mortgages on the furniture in the hotel, which cost from $50,000 to $80,000. They claim this can be done, because the mortgages are illegal, the provision of the law which refers to the selling out of the corporation to another not having been complied with. The debts of the hotel will reach $100,000.

Tiffin, O., Nov. 18.—Rev. J. Klinger, aged sixty years, a minister of the Reformed church at Upper Merion, Pa., attended divine worship at the church Sunday night and returned home feeling perfectly well. Before retiring he invited his guest, Rev. Fouché, of Indianapolis, to pray for him in prayer, and when he concluded all rose from their knees except Rev. Klinger. Upon going to him he found that he had been struck with paralysis, and he soon afterward died.
